Energetic Matrix Church of Consciousness

Why should I renew my AIM Energetic Balancing Program?

"People recognize that their inner needs aren't being met. They're itching for change, but they don't know how to get there. But people who have come here for energetic balancing find that their feelings of well-being return, they have much more energy; they think more clearly; and their emotions are calmer, more centered, and more loving."

Pg 88 – Sanctuary: The Path to Consciousness

Many participants have vowed to stay on the AIM trays forever. They say it is miraculous. They feel amazing, are more alert and get more out of their lives. They say they get sick less often and recover faster when they do. Their relationships have improved. Their work lives are more productive and they are more capable of handling the day to day stresses of life. Their children on AIM do better in school. Their pets on AIM are happier, too.

The need for AIM is greater than ever. Almost two decades after its founding, the remarkable Spiritual Technology of the AIM Program is still at the cutting edge of personal transformation and wellness. The world has become more toxic, energetically, biologically, emotionally. Yet AIM Program participants like you live in a special place, protected by 24/7 balancing energies and enhanced with special energies that increase awareness, joy and youthfulness.

For those with more noticeable improvement from having healed most if not all their imbalances, the choice is easy: Renew today — or make it extra easy by signing up for automatic renewal.

Even if your experience has been more subtle, you are still getting the benefits of the AIM Program. Some people like you don't have or need to have drama in their progress towards wellness and wholeness. Upon reflection, most find that they have experienced more improvement than they first thought. This is why we have always encouraged keeping a journal of your goals and your experiences with the AIM Program. Sometimes friends and family can point to changes they've seen in you.

We'd all like to be "done" once we've removed all our energetic imbalances, but we each have our own unique healing path and, often, additional work to do in strengthening our sense of well-being and in raising consciousness. So, while vital to our overall well-being, having a high life force is not a goal in itself, but it can mark the beginning of true healing, or becoming whole.

As Stephen Lewis has said: There is always more. For most, there are deeper layers. And at least several times a week new frequencies are added to the tray. Among them are newly-revealed imbalances and enhancing energies that bring your energetic body to function at ever higher levels. Staying on the AIM trays ensures instant access to every frequency you need, as soon as you need it.

Renew today to continue your energetic balancing progress.

Peace & Blessings, EMC<sup>2</sup>

"I am now in my 10th year on the AIM Energetic Balancing program. Starting and renewing on AIM is one of the smartest life decisions I've ever made. Since being on the program, I am happier, healthier, more confident and my connection to guidance is much more powerful. I have continued to heal myself on deeper levels over the years. One of my most powerful balancings happened during my 5th year. During the years on AIM my attitude has continued to improve to higher levels of joy and human understanding. I am a better me in every way. Thank you EMC<sup>2</sup>."

Patti, Colorado

"I have been on the AIM program for 2 years. I don't ever plan to be without it. I can honestly say this is how I dreamed retirement would be. My friend's lives are filled with doctor visits and prescription drugs and I am out in the garden or playing with the grandkids. I plan to continue healing myself with the assistance of energetic balancing!"
